

PINELEE COUNTRY GARDEN

open: by appointment- admission: yes food: lunches and teas by arrangement owners: Warren and Judith Howard

The name Pinelee is appropriate as the garden is surrounded by tall Pinaster Pines. The plantings in the garden comprise a wide variety of natives from NZ, AUS and SA providing an interesting mixture of colour all the year. Warren is a mastercraftsman in traditional English furniture and gives lectures on furniture quality, marquetry and period design.
